

Maine Supreme Judicial Court
Katahdin Counsel Recognition Program

DEADLINE REMINDER

Maine lawyers generously perform countless hours of pro bono work that typically go unrecognized. The Katahdin Counsel program seeks to quantify and recognize those efforts.

The court invites and encourages Maine attorneys to submit their certifications of service by the deadline of September 15th for qualification for the 2016 Katahdin Counsel Program.¹

Although Maine lawyers often shun public recognition for their good works, it is vitally important for the court and the profession to be able to show, in concrete numbers, the contribution that these lawyers make to the larger community.

The important dates are as follows: The end of the reporting year for the 2015-16 Katahdin Counsel Program is June 30th. Qualifying pro bono hours for the 2015-16 Katahdin Counsel Program must be reported no later than September 15th.

¹ Katahdin Counsel status must be renewed annually upon certification of qualifying hours for any given year. Further information may be obtained at the Judicial Branch website: http://www.courts.maine.gov/citizen_help/attorneys/katahdin/overview.html
