IMPORTANT WARNING TO RESPONDING PARTY

If this motion asks the court to modify (change) a child support order and you object to the motion, you must file a written response with the Court within 30 days from the date the motion was served on you. You must also file with the Court a completed child support affidavit. This form is available at the clerk's office. You must send copies of your response and affidavit to the other party or to their attorney, if any.

If this motion does not involve child support, you must file a written objection to the motion with the Court within 20 days from the date it was served upon you. You must also send a copy of your objection to the other party's attorney or, if the other party does not have an attorney, directly to the other party.

NOTICE TO BOTH PARTIES

If this motion is filed in the District Court and involves minor children, you are required to attend a case management conference at the court. Within two weeks after the moving party files in court proof of service of the motion to modify and a child support affidavit, the court will notify you of the date and time of the conference. The notice will be sent by regular mail.

You have the right to appear and be heard at all courts events (trial, hearing, conference, mediation). If you fail to appear at any or all court events without good cause, action may be taken on your case even though you are not there. This means that the Court may, in your absence, enter an interim/temporary order, OR hold a final hearing and enter a final order or judgment regarding any or all of the issues in your case, including but not limited to paternity or parentage, parental rights and responsibilities for children (custody, residence, contact, visitation, etc), child support, spousal support/alimony, attorney fees, and distribution of marital and non-marital property (debt, real estate, vehicles, personal property, pension and retirement accounts, etc). The Court also has the option to dismiss any pleading that you have filed if you do not show up. It is your own responsibility to be sure that the Court has your correct address. Any change of address must be in writing and delivered to the Clerks office by hand or regular mail.
