ORDER
M. Bar R. 7.3(h)(3)

On September 12, 2013 the Board of Overseers of the Bar petitioned the Court in this reciprocal discipline matter to issue an Order and Notice for Defendant Julie Court Molloy to show cause why she should not receive a reprimand in Maine based upon the reprimand imposed upon her by the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court on August 28, 2013. Attached to the Board’s Petition for Reciprocal Discipline was a certified copy of that Order of Public Reprimand issued by the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court.

As a result, on October 24, 2013 the Court issued that Order and Notice for Ms. Molloy, within 30 days of service of that Order upon her, to inform the Court in writing of any claim by her that such reciprocal discipline should not be imposed in Maine. On January 22, 2014 Bar Counsel confirmed to the Court’s Executive Clerk that copies of a Summons, Petition for Reciprocal Discipline and the Court’s Order and Notice had been served upon Ms. Molloy in East Sandwich, Massachusetts by the Barnstable County Massachusetts Sheriff’s office on January 10, 2014. That Summons directed Ms. Molloy to file
