This Court has received a certified copy of the Reprimand and Order on Costs with accompanying Stipulation as to Facts, Violations, and Sanction by the New Hampshire Supreme Court dated September 19, 2017, publicly sanctioning Attorney Timothy Coughlin for his violations of the New Hampshire Rules of Professional Conduct.

Attorney Coughlin has notified the Court and Bar Counsel of his consent to the Board of Overseers of the Bar's request for imposition of identical discipline in Maine.

Therefore, by agreement of the parties, this Court hereby ORDERS:

- The Board of Overseers of the Bar's Petition for Reciprocal Discipline is granted in all respects;
- 2. Effective immediately and pursuant to M. Bar R. 26(e), Timothy Coughlin is reprimanded for his violations of those portions of the Maine Rules of Professional Conduct that are analogous to the New Hampshire Rules of Professional Conduct found to have been violated by Attorney Coughlin in that Order.

DATED: November 21, 2017

Andrew M. Mead, Associate Justice Maine Supreme Judicial Court
