

As a service to the bar, Attorney Soule may serve as Receiver for the Field law office on a pro bono basis. However, Attorney Soule shall submit a semi-annual written report to the Court, copied to the Board's Special Counsel, containing a record of time worked and disbursements made in this matter. The law office of Eliot Field shall be the first choice for source of payment for the disbursements and any legal fees (at the state court appointment rate) sought by the Receiver. If insufficient assets are available from the law office, the Board of Overseers may be an alternate payment source for expenses related to the law office closure.

Attorney Soule shall act as Receiver until discharged by the Court in accordance with M. Bar R 32(c).

Attorney Soule so appointed shall not disclose any information contained in any file listed in such inventory without the consent of the client to whom such file relates except as may be necessary to carry out an order of court including any order under M. Bar R 32.

Attorney Soule may be engaged by any former client of Eliot Field provided that the client is informed in writing that the client is free to choose to employ any attorney, and that the Court's appointment order does not mandate or recommend the Receiver's employment by the client. Attorney Soule is subject to all Maine Rules of Professional Conduct, including M. R. Prof Conduct 1.7; 1.8 and 1.9 regarding conflicts of interest. However, a client's retention of the Receiver as successor counsel is not a per se conflict of interest solely by reason of Attorney Soule's appointment by this Order. Attorney Soule

Attorney Soule shall be protected from liability for professional services rendered in accordance with this Order to the extent permitted by law.
