INCREASED COURTHOUSE SAFETY

With the support of Governor LePage and the 126th Legislature, entry screening is now provided on approximately 60% of all court days. This is a significant increase over prior years and, as a result, Maine's courts are safer. All of Maine's courts still need to be secure every day that they are open for business.

ELECTRONIC PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ORDERS

In 2013, through technology improvements, the courts now send civil Protection From Abuse orders electronically to the Department of Public Safety. Law enforcement throughout the state can make service immediately wherever the defendant might be located, improving safety for victims of abuse.

KATAHDIN COUNSEL

2013 saw another year in which Maine lawyers contributed the equivalent of well over $2,000,000 worth of civil legal services to elderly and low-income people who could not otherwise afford legal assistance. The Supreme Court recognized 145 honorees in October who had each donated at least 50 hours of free legal services. Katahdin Counsel assisted citizens in many cases; for example, matters involving children, domestic violence, and housing.

ACCESS TO JUSTICE: Interpreters

The Maine Judicial Branch continued its efforts in 2013 to improve access to justice through court interpreters. Two spoken language interpreters received national court interpreter certification. Maine courts now have a statewide roster of 52 spoken language interpreters, who collectively interpret 24 different languages, and 10 legally-certified sign language interpreters. Interpretation services are provided free of charge for all case types; however, 82% of the usage is in primarily four areas: criminal, juvenile, family matters, and protection from abuse cases. Somali is the most frequently requested language, followed by Spanish and Arabic. Protection from abuse and harassment forms have been translated into 6 languages and are now available on the Judicial Branch web page at http://www.courts.state.me.us/fees_forms/forms/trans_docs/index.html.

Seven nationalities and eight languages are represented at this interpreter training sponsored by the Judicial Branch.

COURTS PROVIDE IMPROVED CASE MANAGEMENT

	FY '09	FY '10	FY '11	FY '12	FY '13
Superior Court Criminal	205	219	229	239	242
District Court Criminal	109	110	113	115	115
Portland UCD		84	101	102	102
Bangor UCD			68	75	81

The trial courts in Portland and Bangor have adopted a unified process for criminal cases and have eliminated the need for transferring cases from District to Superior Court. This model has simplified procedures for litigants and stakeholders, has eliminated duplication of work by clerks, and has substantially reduced the time for felony resolution.

CLEARANCE RATES IN TRIAL COURTS

Clearance Rate measures whether the courts are keeping up with caseload. When the Clearance Rate exceeds 100%, it means that more cases were disposed than were filed during FY '13.

FISCAL INFORMATION

GENERAL FUND AND JUDICIAL BRANCH EXPENDITURES

In FY'13, General Funds received by the Judicial Branch were less than 2% of the State total. Personal Services accounted for more than half (58.7%) of Judicial Branch expenditures.

FY'13 REVENUE

Fine and related surcharge revenue has decreased in recent years. A primary cause for the reduction is the decline in the number of criminal cases, civil violations, and traffic infractions filed in the courts, as illustrated by the chart above.

REVENUE DISTRIBUTED BY THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

FY'13 Revenue Distribution
Total: $39,058,928

All revenue collected by the Judicial Branch is deposited into the State's General Fund and to other dedicated accounts as required by Maine Statutes. Sources of revenue include fees, fines, and surcharges.
