Court Operations Resume in Portland

Tuesday, May 19, 2020 - The Maine Judicial Branch closed the Portland courthouse and sent all staff home on Friday, May 15 due to a possible case of COVID-19 on the part of a court employee. Over the weekend, the courthouse underwent a deep cleaning and was reopened on Monday.

The employee has since tested negative and the court has resumed its schedule. The hours of operation and information on the Maine Judicial Branch's response to COVID-19 may be found on the judicial branch website linked here.
