

STATE OF MAINE
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

APPOINTMENT OF YORK COUNTY COURTHOUSE PROJECT TEAM

Effective December 9, 2016--Revised

The York County Courthouse Project Team will oversee the development of plans and design for the new consolidated Courthouse in York County. The Team will receive regular input from the Stakeholders Group.

The Team members include:

Justice Thomas E. Humphrey, Supreme Judicial Court (Chair)
Justice Wayne R. Douglas, RJ - Superior Court
Judge Jeffrey Moskowitz, RJ - District Court
Magistrate Lindsay Cadwallader
James T. Glessner, State Court Administrator
Kathy Jones, Clerk of Court
Tamara Rueda, Clerk of Court
Mike Coty, JB Marshal, or designee
David Packard, CIO or designee
Chief Justice Leigh I. Saufley, ex officio

Membership in the YCCPT may be altered or augmented at the discretion of the Chief Justice. Justice Thomas E. Humphrey shall serve as Chair, unless otherwise determined by the Chief Justice and may be joined by the Chiefs of the Superior and District Court when they are available.

The Chair shall receive the assistance of the Administrative Office of the Courts and shall convene meetings of the Team as often as necessary to provide timely input and guidance to the architects and builders. The Chair shall also determine the membership and meeting times of the broad-based Stakeholders Group to assist with design decisions.

The goal of the Team and the Stakeholders group is to design a courthouse that will provide the best public service possible within available funds; assure that the building is dignified, safe, and efficient; and represent all of the best practices and current information in courthouse design related to public service, safety, and technology.
